

Dear Commissioners:

I believe it is a mistake to change the rules allowing for greater concentration in the media. The rule changes you proposed and enacted today will very likely limit ordinary voices and voices that issue strong dissent. We need these voices and the FCC should be enacting rules that further these goals, rather than furthering the goals of large media conglomerates.